

The quiet house was built by a former student and teacher as a dedication to a child who died here. It is a place for quiet thought.

Black Mountain College is 5 miles from the village and railway station of Black Mountain and 15 miles east of Asheville.

We have facilities for 90 students. There are at present 22 faculty members.

Students live in lodges. Everyone has his own study in the studies building.

Faculty live in houses and apartments near the lodges.

We have no separate administration or board of trustees.

We eat together in the dining hall, which we use also for concerts, plays, parties.

The library is open to everyone 24 hours a day.

Students are admitted to BMC upon approval of the Admissions Committee, which is composed of The Registrar, 2 faculty, and 2 students.

Fees are arranged, within limits, according to the individual's ability to pay.
